Allison M. McMeechan Elected to Board of Directors of the Cleveland-Akron Chapter of the Society of Financial Service Professionals

CLEVELAND, OH - Reminger Co., LPA is pleased to announce that attorney Allison M. McMeechan has been elected to the Board of Directors of the Cleveland-Akron Chapter of the Society of Financial Service Professionals.

The Society of Financial Service Professionals is an organization of credentialed professionals from various financial disciplines bound together to pursue knowledge, uphold high ethical standards and form meaningful relationships with their peers.

For the last 10 years, Allison has focused her practice on elder and special needs law, including estate and long term care planning, estate and trust administration, probate and guardianships.

Allison is an Accredited Attorney with the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs. She is a member of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys National and Ohio Chapters, the Ohio State Bar Association's Estate, Trust & Probate Law Section, and Elder & Special Needs Law Committee, and the Cleveland Metropolitan Bar Association's Estate Planning, Probate & Trust Law Section. Allison is also a member of the Board of the Consortium Against Adult Abuse (C3A), the chair of the C3A's Education Committee, and the Hospice of the Western Reserve's Advisory Committee.

Allison received her B.A. degree with a major in Criminal Justice Studies from the University of Dayton in 1999 and her J.D. degree from Cleveland Marshall College of Law in 2004.

Allison has published articles and has spoken in the areas of probate, estate planning, government benefits, and special needs trusts. Her audiences include individuals, bar associations, non-profit organizations, and other professional organizations.

Allison can be reached by email at amcmeechan@reminger.com or by calling 216.430.2105.
