Reminger Co., LPA Hosts Second Vanguard Gala Three Leaders from Education Community Honored

CLEVELAND, OH – Reminger Co., LPA hosted our second Vanguard Gala on Thursday, September 17th at the Shoreby Club in Cleveland. We developed this event two years ago in conjunction with our Reminger Women's Initiative as a way to recognize those individuals who exemplify the characteristics that we seek in our collective pursuit of professional and personal excellence.

More than 140 people attended the client event in which we honored three individuals from Cleveland's education community: Lee Friedman of College Now Greater Cleveland, Annemarie Grassi, Ph.D. from Open Doors Academy, and Monyka Price of the City of Cleveland. (To learn more, please visit Reminger's You Tube page at <https://www.youtube.com/user/RemingerLaw>).

The Gala brought together a unique cross section of professionals, from a variety of backgrounds. Our host committee included: Mayor Frank Jackson, The Honorable Maureen O'Connor, Zydrunas Ilgauskas and his wife Jennifer, Sam Rutigliano, Dennis Eckart, Terry Egger, Matt Donnelly, Chuck Dana, Judy Caldwell, Ray Krncevic, and PJ Malnar.

To further underscore our support for these women and the amazing work that they have contributed to our community, The Reminger Foundation made a charitable contribution on behalf of each of our honorees' choice of organizations.

"We were honored to share this special evening with noteworthy individuals who have contributed so much to our education community," remarked Reminger Managing Partner Stephen E. Walters.
