Nathan Sargent of Summa Health Wins Reminger Award for Meritorious Writing in the Field of Law & Medicine at Cleveland-Marshall School of Law

CLEVELAND, OH - Nathan Sargent was honored at the Cleveland-Marshall College of Law (CMLAW) Academic Awards Ceremony on Tuesday, October 27th with the Reminger Award for Meritorious Writing in the Field of Law and Medicine. Nathan's submission was entitled "The National Imperative for Health Care System Transformation: Why Certain Mergers and Acquisitions are Appropriate Despite Section 7 of the Clayton Act."

More than 40 awards were given out that evening. Winners were selected by the CMLAW Health Law and Policy Center faculty and administrators. Nathan was presented with a $500 scholarship from Reminger Co., LPA by Professor Kevin O'Neill.

Currently Nathan works as a Governance and Physician Contracts Manager at Summa Health. Prior to this role, he served in other capacities at Summa Health in Physician Services, as a Governance Coordinator and as a Communications Associate. Nathan began attending CMLAW on a part-time basis in Fall 2013; he is expected to graduate in Spring 2017.

"We would like to convey our heartfelt congratulations to Nathan on an impressive submission," remarked Reminger Managing Partner Stephen E. Walters. "We are also pleased to be part of CMLAW's longstanding program that recognizes writing excellence in the fields of law and medicine."
