Reminger Co., LPA Announces Two New Firm Shareholders

CLEVELAND, OH – Reminger Co., LPA elected Brian Nally and Robert Ott as shareholders during our recent annual shareholder meeting.

Brian Nally: Brian practices in our Cleveland and Indianapolis offices. As counsel for businesses and individuals in a variety of legal matters, Brian's practice is principally focused on financial services litigation, including the representation of investment advisers, registered representatives, broker-dealers, financial planners, accountants, accounting firms, and wealth management firms in:

- State and federal litigation in Ohio and Indiana;
- Securities arbitration administered by FINRA;
- Regulatory investigations brought by FINRA and the Ohio Department of Insurance;
- Disciplinary investigations brought by professional organizations; and
- Shareholder disputes and/or general business disputes.

In addition to his experience with financial services matters, Brian also represents insurance agents, employers, architects, and individuals in an array of legal matters. Brian has been recognized multiple times as a Rising Star by Ohio Super Lawyers Magazine.

Robert Ott: Rob practices in our Louisville office. Prior to joining Reminger, Rob worked at a Louisville firm where he maintained an active practice in Kentucky and Florida. His practice was focused on defending physicians and other healthcare providers in medical negligence actions, as well as defending long term care facilities. Rob has tried a number of cases and was named to the list of most prolific trial attorneys in both 2010 and 2011.

Rob obtained his undergraduate degree through a full Army R.O.T.C. scholarship and was commissioned as a U.S. Army Officer, serving four years on active duty. Rob achieved his law degree from the University of Louisville where he graduated cum laude. He participated in moot court and was the recipient of the Edwin M. Post Award for litigation potential. He also earned the highest grade in Trial Practice and Advanced Trial Practice. Rob has been recognized multiple times as a Rising Star by Kentucky Super Lawyers Magazine.

Brian can be reached by emailing bnally@reminger.com or by calling 216.430.2106.

Robert can be reached by emailing rott@reminger.com or by calling 502.625.7289.
