Trevor Wells Joins Northwest Indiana Office of Reminger Co., LPA

CROWN POINT, IN – Reminger Co., LPA is pleased to announce that attorney Trevor Wells has joined our Northwest Indiana office. Trevor maintains a diverse civil litigation practice, focused on tort liability and complex commercial disputes, in addition to appellate advocacy.

Over the past two decades, Trevor has also handled legal matters spanning from transactional real estate to appeals, and has represented clients in civil, criminal, bankruptcy, and domestic-relations litigation. In previous positions, including five years as a Senior Kentucky Supreme Court Law Clerk and twelve years in private practice in a firm that he co-founded, Trevor gained extensive litigation experience in both trial and appellate courts while sitting first chair in more than fifty jury trials and briefing and orally arguing dozens of appeals in state and federal courts.

Trevor has served as an adjunct law school professor of Legal Research and Writing at the University of Kentucky College of Law, and is a frequent continuing legal education presenter on professional ethics and legal technology. He volunteers at a local high school as an assistant debate coach, teaching students how to develop and articulate persuasive arguments.

Trevor also represents clients out of our office in Lexington, Kentucky, where he was born and raised, attended college and law school, and practiced law for the first fifteen years of his career. He received the Kentucky Department of Public Advocacy Minister of Justice Award in 2015.
