MCIANO@REMINGER.COM

Mario C. Ciano, served as Managing Partner of Reminger Co., L.P.A. from 1990 to 2005. A few of his many accomplishments include his vision to successfully expand Reminger from 45 attorneys in two offices to over 125 attorneys in eight offices. An Italian immigrant, Mario's hard work, entrepreneurial spirit and sense of fairness makes him a frequently requested mediator by both plaintiff and defense attorneys for complex litigation matters.

Mario has always maintained an eclectic legal practice. He enjoys representing businesses and professionals including attorneys, doctors and accountants. In fact, he is frequently hired by other attorneys to assist them or help resolve their own legal matters.

Mario has been recognized and included among the 'Best Lawyers in America' for the last ten years. He has been a featured 'Leading Lawyers' by Inside Business Magazine and is a member of the Federation of Defense and Corporate Counsel and Defense Research Institute. He is also a faculty fellow for the National Institute of Trial Advocacy and a life delegate of the Eighth Ohio Judicial District. He frequently lectures to peer groups on various trial litigation and professional liability issues.

Mario's most rewarding work has been in the area of private placement adoption. He has privately placed children for friends, colleagues and clients for the past 20 years guiding them through the agency and probate court to ensure each child would be united with its adopted parents at birth.
