

OHIO APPELLATE DISTRICTS

Ohio's eighty-eight counties are divided into twelve appellate districts. The number of judges in each district depends on a variety of factors, including the court's caseload and the size of the district. Currently, the number of judges in each of Ohio's appellate districts varies from four to twelve.

Ohio is also served by two United States federal district courts, the Northern and Southern District of Ohio. Both districts are under the jurisdiction of the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals, located in Cincinnati. The Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals presides over cases from Kentucky, Michigan, Ohio and Tennessee's federal district courts.

APPELLATE PRACTICE

Reminger Co., LPA's Appellate Advocacy Practice Group utilizes the expertise and experience of a dedicated group of appellate lawyers to help clients navigate the complex appellate process. The Appellate Practice Group is composed of lawyers from our seven offices throughout the State of Ohio who have unique knowledge of appellate procedures and the art of persuasion. This expertise is derived from navigating numerous appeals through the state and federal court, as well as from experience gained through former Supreme Court and appellate judicial clerkships.

Our lawyers take pride in zealously representing our clients' interests and in contributing to the development of the law. We provide our clients with concise, thoughtful, and objective evaluations of the risks and benefits of an appeal and utilize our talents, experience, and expertise in presenting persuasive arguments in support of our clients' positions. We are also available to consult with clients regarding complex trial issues, post trial motions, and prejudgment interest proceedings in order to best enhance our clients' chances of success on appeal.
