Anthony Catanzarite Named to Board of Directors for Stallions Baseball Club

CLEVELAND, OH - Reminger Co., LPA is pleased to announce that attorney Tony Catanzarite was named to the Board of Directors for the Stallions Baseball Club, a premier non-profit youth travel baseball organization with 23 years of rich baseball tradition.

Tony serves as Chair of Reminger's Sports and Entertainment Practice Group, as well as Co-Chair to the firm's Construction Practice Group. Within the Sports and Entertainment group, as a licensed athlete agent, Tony represents professional baseball players, coaches, amusement parks, sports equipment companies, broadcasters, and television personalities. Within the Construction group, Tony represents owners, contractors, subcontractors, architects and engineers with a variety of legal matters and issues.

Tony also serves as general counsel for several local and regional companies, handling many day-to-day legal needs of corporations and their employees. He has successfully tried multiple cases to a jury, is experienced in arbitration, and is licensed to practice law in both Ohio and West Virginia.

Tony is a member of several professional organizations including the Sports Lawyers Association, and has been named an Ohio Rising Star by Super Lawyers Magazine multiple years.

Tony can be reached by calling 216.430.2138 or by emailing acatanzarite@reminger.com.
