Franklin C. Malemud Appointed as Chair of the Estate Planning, Probate and Trust Law Section of the Cleveland Metropolitan Bar Association

CLEVELAND, OH – Reminger Co., LPA is pleased to announce that Franklin Malemud has been appointed to a one-year term as Chair of the Estate Planning, Probate and Trust Law Section of the Cleveland Metropolitan Bar Association.

Franklin focuses his practice on probate court and trust litigation matters, dealing primarily with litigation involving wills, trusts, guardianship, conservatorship, powers of attorney, and living wills. Franklin also defends professional liability litigation with a focus upon lawyer negligence. He serves as Co-Chair of Reminger's Elder Law & Special Needs Planning practice group.

Franklin has also been appointed to serve on the Jewish Community Federation's (JCF) Professional Advisory Council steering committee which assists JCF members with continuing education on charitable gift planning. He has been recognized multiple times as both a Rising Star and as a Super Lawyer by Ohio Super Lawyers Magazine.

Franklin can be reached by emailing fmalemud@reminger.com or by calling 216.430.2225.
