David J. Hudak Joins Reminger Co., LPA's Cleveland Office

CLEVELAND, OH – Reminger Co., LPA is pleased to announce that David J. Hudak has joined our Cleveland, Ohio office.

David focuses the majority of his practice on the defense of medical negligence claims involving global insurance carriers, medical professionals, nursing homes, pharmacists, and hospitals. He leverages his unique background in biology in representing his health care clientele, which includes internal medicine physicians, vascular surgeons, orthopedic surgeons, radiologists, obstetricians, transplant surgeons, infectious disease physicians, and cardiothoracic surgeons.

David has defended cases in numerous jurisdictions including Pennsylvania, California, Illinois, Kentucky and Ohio, and regularly represents clients in both state and federal courts. In addition to medical malpractice, David has extensive experience in the defense of claims involving product liability, premises liability, and general liability.

Prior to pursuing his legal career, David served as director of a biological laboratory and as a faculty member of Ursuline College, teaching Microbiology, Anatomy and Physiology, Molecular Biology, Immunology, Zoology, and General Biology. While pursuing his master's degree, he performed research using molecular biology techniques on the anti-cancer drug Cisplatin in bacterial vectors.

David is a graduate of the Cleveland-Marshall College of Law. He received his Master of Science degree from Bowling Green State University and his undergraduate degree in Biology from Denison University.

David can be reached by emailing dhudak@reminger.com or by calling 216.430.2125.
