Steven A. Chang Joins Reminger Co., LPA's Columbus Office

COLUMBUS, OH – Reminger Co., LPA is pleased to announce that Steven A. Chang has joined our Columbus office. He focuses his legal practice on a wide variety of legal matters including complex commercial litigation, oil and gas litigation, insurance coverage/bad faith, and professional liability.

Prior to joining Reminger, Steven was an associate at an Am Law 200 firm, where he practiced complex commercial litigation, oil and gas litigation, and general business litigation. Steven has extensive experience representing Fortune 500 companies, national oil and gas producers, and financial institutions in all aspects of litigation in both state and federal court. In addition, Steven has experience in class action litigation, successfully opposing class certification in federal court. He also routinely advised clients on eDiscovery issues.

Before going to law school, Steven worked for several years in the financial services sector, where he obtained invaluable knowledge of the banking industry with respect to both business and regulatory issues.

Steven can be reached by calling 614.232.2446 or by emailing schang@reminger.com.
