Kelly Johns Voted President Elect of Mahoning County Bar Association

YOUNGSTOWN, OH – Reminger Co., LPA is pleased to announce that Kelly Johns has been voted President Elect of the Mahoning County Bar Association. Her term as President will start in July of 2019.

Kelly is a shareholder in Reminger's Youngstown office. She handles a wide range of cases that include workers' compensation; employment; professional negligence; general liability and criminal matters.

Kelly joined the practice of law following a career as a critical care registered nurse. She attended the evening program at the University of Akron School of Law while working full time as a nurse paralegal, graduating cum laude in 1999. Prior to joining Reminger, Kelly was an Assistant Mahoning County Prosecutor, prosecuting major felony cases.

Kelly is a member of various bar associations, including the Mahoning County Bar Association and the Ohio State Bar Association. She was a former Mahoning County Bar Association trustee and has served on several committees.

Kelly can be reached by calling 330.744.1311 or by emailing kjohns@reminger.com.
