Andrew C. Pettijohn Joins Reminger Co., LPA's Louisville Office

LOUISVILLE, KY – Reminger Co., LPA is pleased to announce that Andrew C. Pettijohn has joined our Louisville office. Andrew defends businesses and individuals facing claims involving general liability, professional negligence, and employment matters. He focuses his legal practice primarily in the areas of premises liability, defense of trucking liability, and workers' compensation. He also has experience in matters of insurance defense and coverage, construction defense, contract interpretation, and medical malpractice.

Andrew completed his undergraduate studies early with cum laude honors at Western Kentucky University in 2012. He then received his law degree from Washington University in Saint Louis, where he interned at the Office of the Public Defender and served as editor for the esteemed Washington University Global Studies Law Review. He primarily focused on insurance defense with another regional firm before joining Reminger in 2018.

Andrew can be reached by calling 502.625.7304 or by emailing apettijohn@reminger.com.
