Richard T. Reminger Inducted Into the 2018 Class of the Cleveland-Marshall College of Law Hall of Fame

CLEVELAND, OH – Reminger Co., LPA is proud to announce that our founder Richard T. Reminger is being inducted into the 2018 Class of the Cleveland-Marshall College of Law (CMLAW) Hall of Fame on Friday, October 26, 2018. The CMLAW Hall of Fame was established to honor the outstanding contributions to the success and prestige of the law school by distinguished alumni, faculty, staff, friends and community leaders.

Mr. Reminger founded our law firm in 1958. He served as Managing Partner and Chief Executive Officer until retiring in 1991. He spent his entire career in the courtroom, specializing in the defense of civil matters before juries in a broad spectrum of liability lawsuits. He has been honored by the Cleveland Marshall College of Law (CMLAW) with their "Alumnus of the Year Award" in 1989. He is listed in both "Who's Who in America" and "Who's Who in the World."

Mr. Reminger served as President and Trustee of the CMLAW Alumni Association and is a Life Member. He has served as president of various clubs, including Mayfield Country Club and the Hermit Club.

Mr. Reminger was a member of the Naval Air Corps Reserve during the Korean War. While attending law school, he also served as Personnel and Safety Director of Motor Express Inc. of Cleveland, a large common carrier serving many states. He was also co-founder of Cardinal Casualty Company and served on many public and private boards of directors. He received his Bachelor's Degree from Case Western Reserve University, and his Juris Doctor from CMLAW.

In addition to Mr. Reminger's storied career in the legal arena, he is also widely recognized as a highly accomplished and esteemed oil painter. An elected member of the Oil Painters of America and the Salmagundi Club of New York City, he is also a signature member of the International Society of Marine Painters. His subject matter ranges from portraits to coastal landscapes. His paintings have been invited and juried into more than 135 exhibitions throughout the country and in Bermuda.

Mr. Reminger was honored earlier this month at Case Western Reserve University's Homecoming weekend with the "President's Award for Excellence," as well as with the dedication of the Richard T. Reminger Athletic Director's Suite at the school.
