Andrew Jamison Joins Akron Office of Reminger Co., LPA

AKRON, OH – We are pleased to announce that Andrew Jamison has joined Reminger Co., LPA's Akron, Ohio office. Andy specializes in the defense of medical and healthcare professionals, including physicians, dentists, nurses, therapists, hospitals and assisted living and long-term care facilities.

Andy defends malpractice allegations against professionals including real estate agents, brokers, accountants, architects and engineers. He also has extensive experience handling general liability and premises liability cases.

Andy returned to Reminger after working as a trial attorney for a large property and casualty insurance company for seven years, where he focused on matters involving medical and health care professionals, medical device manufacturers and healthcare entities.

He frequently lectures on the topic of medical malpractice and long-term care liability issues to healthcare professionals, and also serves as a guest lecturer on tort law at Duquesne University School of Law.

Andy can be reached by emailing ajamison@reminger.com or by calling 330.434.6009.
