Press Release
Feb 1, 2013

Cincinnati, OH – Reminger Co., LPA attorney Robert Hojnoski was featured in the February 2013 issue of Cincy Magazine as a Leading Lawyer. Registered lawyers in Southwest Ohio, Northern Kentucky and Southeast Indiana were invited by Cincy to submit ballots nominating the best among their colleagues. Results were fact checked and approved by an advisory board.

Bob is the Managing Partner of Reminger's Cincinnati office. He has developed an extremely diverse practice in the areas of civil and business litigation, primarily focused on the representation of medical and non-medical professionals (including lawyers, accountants, real estate, insurance and financial professionals); entrepreneurs and business owners; officers and directors; property owners and managers; product designers, manufacturers, distributors and retailers; non-profits; architects, engineers and contractors; private and commercial motorists and transportation companies; and various other individuals and businesses involved in disputes which are often complex and involve catastrophic damages.

Administratively, Bob serves as Chair of the firm's General Casualty and Drug and Medical Device Practice Groups. He is also a practice area leader in several of the firm's additional practice groups. Outside of the firm, Bob is a member of numerous state and federal bar associations and civil defense organizations.

Bob can be reached by calling 513.455.4013 or by emailing rhojnoski@reminger.com.
