AKRON, OH – Reminger Co., LPA is pleased to announce that Andrew Jamison has been named Co-Chair of our Long-Term Care Liability Practice Group.

Andy is a shareholder in Reminger's Akron office, where he specializes in the defense of medical and healthcare professionals, including physicians, dentists, nurses, therapists, hospitals and assisted living and long-term care facilities.

Led by Thomas Prislipsky and Andy Jamison, Reminger's Long-Term Care Liability defense group is an innovator in the complex arena of long-term care law. We boast a team of seasoned litigators who understand the actions that nursing homes should take in order to minimize potential litigation. Our inherent knowledge of the nursing home industry is palpable, as evidenced by the sheer number of nursing home cases that we handle throughout the region.
