LEXINGTON, KY –Reminger Co., LPA is pleased to announce that Anthony Pernice has joined our Lexington, Kentucky office.

Anthony represents corporations and individuals in litigation matters including premises liability, construction negligence, and commercial trucking. Anthony worked previously for more than four years at another regional insurance litigation defense firm, where he was successful at both the trial and appellate level.

Anthony has been recognized by Kentucky Trial Court Review as one of the “Most Prolific Trial Attorneys” for 2015. While at the University of Kentucky College of Law, Anthony received multiple honors for his advocacy and was an active member of the National Mock Trial Team.

Anthony began his career in the financial industry as an advisor, equity analyst, and financial institutions examiner before pursuing the field of law. He leverages his analytical skills garnered from his experience in the financial industry in crafting strategic representation for his clients.

Anthony can be reached by emailing apernice@reminger.com or by calling 859.426.4639.
