INDIANAPOLIS, IN –Reminger Co., LPA is pleased to announce that Nicholas Brunette has been selected as a Fellow of the Litigation Counsel of America (LCA).

A shareholder in Reminger’s Indianapolis office, Nick has more than a decade of litigation experience representing defendants in complex civil litigation. Nick has a broad legal practice that encompasses professional liability and licensing, including legal, dental, and medical malpractice defense, employment, product liability, municipal defense, trucking liability defense, and appellate practice. He has managed all phases of a variety of complex litigation in both State and Federal Court. Nick possesses extensive trial experience, having tried cases involving several medical disciplines as well as general liability and transportation risks. Prior to joining Reminger, Nick was a partner in a Northwest Indiana litigation firm.

The LCA is a trial lawyer honorary society composed of less than one-half of one percent of American lawyers. Fellowship in the LCA is highly selective and by invitation only. Fellows are selected based upon excellence and accomplishment in litigation, both at the trial and appellate levels, and superior ethical reputation. Established as a trial and appellate lawyer honorary society reflecting the American bar in the twenty-first century, the LCA represents the best in law among its membership. The number of Fellowships has been kept at an exclusive limit by design, allowing qualifications, diversity and inclusion to align effectively, with recognition of excellence in litigation across all segments of the bar. Fellows are generally at the partner or shareholder level, or are independent practitioners with recognized experience and accomplishment. In addition, the LCA is dedicated to promoting superior advocacy, professionalism and ethical standards among its Fellows.

Nick can be reached by emailing nbrunette@reminger.com or by calling 317.853.7371.
