CLEVELAND, OH – In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, The Reminger Foundation awarded a total of $275,000 in charitable grants to various hospitals that have established recovery funds to support their frontline caregivers. The Reminger Foundation is a 501(c)(3) charitable organization funded by the attorneys and staff of Reminger Co., LPA, and friends of the law firm.

“We wanted to identify a meaningful way to demonstrate our deep appreciation for these heroes who are working tirelessly and valiantly on the front lines in our communities to help treat those afflicted with the COVID-19 virus,” said Stephen Walters, Managing Partner of Reminger Co., LPA and Chair of The Reminger Foundation.

The Reminger Foundation is contributing these funds in order to support the health, well-being and safety of those treating the surge of patients during this critical time.

“Reminger has always been a close partner of the medical community,” Walters stated. “There has never been a more important time for us to work together to overcome this overwhelming challenge.”
