PITTSBURGH, PA – Reminger Co., LPA is pleased to announce the opening of our Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania office. This marks our firm’s first office in Pennsylvania and fifteenth office overall.

“We are pleased to expand into Pennsylvania with our new Pittsburgh office, based on client demand for our legal services,” said Stephen E. Walters, Managing Partner of Reminger. “We are committed to continuing to provide our clients with the coverage they need.”

Reminger shareholder, Acacia Perko, will oversee the Pittsburgh office. Acacia devotes her legal career to representing health care professionals and institutions. She has extensive experience in complex medical malpractice and long-term care matters. Acacia serves as Chair of Reminger’s Women’s Leadership Council and is a member of the Allegheny Bar Association, Westmoreland Bar Association, and the Women’s Bar Association of Western Pennsylvania.

“I am proud to play a role in Reminger’s continued growth,” noted Acacia Perko. “Our new office in Pittsburgh will allow us to increase the reach of our robust, results-oriented legal services to new and existing clients in Pennsylvania.”

Our new office is in the heart of downtown Pittsburgh:

One Oxford Centre
301 Grant Street, Suite 270
Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15219
T 412.730.1000
